

Who we are...

Pebble Creek Racing Foundation is a non-profit organization formed to provide youth in the greater Pocatello community an alpine ski racing opportunity.

What we do...

 Provide our community's youth a chance to compete in local and regional USSA competitive ski events. Ages involved are youth between the ages of 6-19.

 Create a love for skiing, helping athletes increase their self confidence, develop advanced skiing technique, and improve their physical condition.

How to register...

What are the Costs?

USSA racing requires a commitment of time and money. As the athlete's skill improves, they will compete at higher levels which may incur higher costs. The basic cost structure for the 2007/2008 season is as follows.

Program fees:

Developmental (Devo) Team - $250

Ages 6-11

The Devo team is an introduction to racing for first season new athletes. These athletes begin on-snow training on weekends when Pebble Creek Ski Area opens and concludes in March. These athletes may compete in local races and when ready, USSA regional races.

J4-J5 Team - $350

Ages 6-12

The J4-J5 Team begins on-snow training on weekends when Pebble Creek Ski Area opens and concludes in March. These athletes travel and compete in North Series USSA regional events. Dry land and video training is also offered to this team.

J1-J2 and J3 Teams - $450

Ages 13-19

The J1-J2 and J3 Teams begin training on weekends after Thanksgiving and conclude in April. These athletes travel and compete in North Series, J3 Series, Open Series and IMD J1-J2 regional races. Dry land and video training is also offered to these teams.

USSA License plus Intermountain fee

J5 Ages 10 and under	$80
J4 Ages 11-12	$80
J3 Ages 13-14	$175
J2 Ages 15-16	$175
J1 Ages 17-19	$175
